CIVIL ACTION NO. 24-CV-3459

ORDER

AND NOW, this 12th day of November, 2024, upon consideration of Plaintiff Jennifer Rawling's pro se Amended Complaint (ECF No. 6), and Request for Appointment of Attorney (ECF No. 7), it is ORDERED that:

1. For the reasons stated in the Court's Memorandum, the Amended Complaint is dismissed as follows:
 - a. All federal claims are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) for failure to state a claim.
 - b. All state law claims are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.
2. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to SEND a copy of the Amended Complaint (ECF No. 6) and Exhibit (ECF No. 6-1) to Rawling for her review.
3. Rawling may file a second amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Any amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the amended complaint and shall state the factual basis for Rawling's claims against each defendant. The amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint, Amended Complaint, or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting her amended complaint, Rawling should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in her first Amended Complaint as explained in the Court's accompanying Memorandum. Upon the filing of an amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court, so that the Court may screen the amended complaint in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B).

4. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to SEND Rawling a blank copy of this Court's current standard form to be used by a self-represented litigant filing an employment discrimination action bearing the above-captioned civil action number. Rawling may use this form to file her second amended complaint if she chooses to do so.

5. If Rawling does not wish to amend further and instead intends to stand on her Amended Complaint as originally pled, she may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Amended Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate." (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding "that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs' decision not to replead those claims" when the district court "expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims").

6. If Rawling fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that she intends to stand on her Amended Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.¹ See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).

7. The Request for Appointment of Counsel (ECF No. 7) is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE to renewal after the Court conducts statutory screening of any amended complaint that Rawling may file. See Tabron v. Grace, 6 F.3d 147, 155 (3d Cir. 1993) (in determining whether appointment of counsel is appropriate, the Court should first determine whether plaintiff's lawsuit has a legal basis).
